January 28, 2020

At our monthly meeting held at KIUC Board Conference Room, the Foundation approved the following:

$1,000 to the Glenn English Scholarship
$2,000 to Hui O Mana Ka Puuwai Canoe Club

The Makana Program is slowly growing with 64 participants as of this date.

We welcomed First Lady Dawn Amamo-Ige who introduced the Ohana Readers program, a literacy program that focuses on reading with family. The program offers high-quality, age-appropriate Imagination Library books each month to children who are four year old and younger. Children who register for the program will receive one book each month in the mail approximately eight to ten weeks after their registration form has been submitted. The program operates through the Dolly Parton Imagination Library and is free of charge.

Director Iha suggested that we look into this at our last Board meeting and it was very appropriate and timely that the First Lady was on Kauai yesterday and was willing to come and address us.

This program will be made possible through a collaborative partnership between the Office of the Governor, the State Dept. of Human Services (DHS), Hawaii State Library System and non profit partners like the Dollywood Foundation, Friends of the Library.

First Lady Ige stated that Research shows that children are ready to learn in their earliest years, and this program provides no-cost opportunities for learning from birth through age four. ‘Ohana Readers encourages family read-aloud time, an activity that increases the vocabulary and language skills of our children and contributes to their growing knowledge of the world.

More on this later, as the programs unfolds here on Kauai and what role, if any, our Charitable Foundation will play in this venture.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND CONDUCT OF INTERESTED PERSONS

PURPOSE OF POLICY:
Kauai Island Utility Cooperative (KIUC) has confidence in the loyalty and integrity of all members of its Board of Directors and staff. However, because of the importance of the subjects of conflicts of interest, improper corporate political activity and internal accounting controls of corporations, the Board of Directors considers it desirable to emphasize the policy of KIUC on these subjects and to publish this statement as a guide for all persons, including directors, officers and other management personnel, who might, by reason of their corporate duties, find themselves in a position where a conflict of interest may exist. This policy applies to the individuals identified in the policy and to any other individual who is provided and required by the Board of Directors to fill out an annual disclosure statement pursuant to this policy and is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and cooperative corporations.

POLICY CONTENT:

A. Definitions

1. Interested Person. Any director, officer or member of a committee with board-delegated powers who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Family. The family of any individual shall include his/her spouse, partners in a civil union, domestic partners, reciprocal beneficiaries, children, siblings (whether of the

The remaining Board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest.

   b. The chairperson of the Board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

   c. After exercising due diligence, the Board or committee shall determine whether KIUC can obtain a more advantageous business transaction or arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

   d. If a more advantageous business transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the Board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in KIUC’s best interest and for its own benefit and whether the transaction is fair and reasonable to KIUC and shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in conformity with such determination.

4. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy.

   a. If the Board or committee has reasonable cause to believe that a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

   b. If, after hearing the response of the member and making such further investigation as may be warranted in the circumstances, the Board or committee determines that the member has in fact failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary or corrective action.

5. General Conduct of Interested Persons

   a. Confidential Information. Confidential information pertaining to KIUC must be held in strictest confidence and may not be used as a basis for personal gain or advantage by an Interested Person, the Interested Person's Family, or others. accept gifts or other favors where it might appear that they were given for the purpose of improperly influencing the Interested Person in the performance of his or her corporate duties. Interested Persons shall not accept any items of nominal or minor value, including but not limited to, any singular gift meal, entertainment or service, in excess of a $100 value or repeated gifts of lesser value, except where there is a business reason and prior approval is granted by the Board of Directors.
